

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

As the media is more and more filled with junk: junk programs, yuk yuk news alternated with sex, violence, and one view only (which was once called propaganda and is now called news) I mourn the freedom of the press we once had, the debate, the trust in journalism. TV is the media most used by most and it is a wasteland owned by huge media outlets with profit--not integrity--as the guiding principle. I am appalled, frightened, and ashamed of the state of our media now. Deregulation is an evil, repeatedly.Help!
